Welcome to our site. If you would like to get involved with everything this site has to offer, make sure you register at both the main site (there is a login form to the bottom left of the screen) AND the forums (ie 2 sign-ups, please make sure the usernames are the same to simplify things).

Features of the main site include our Calendar, with details of upcoming milsim events, and the Image Gallery. The forums is the place to discuss anything and everything with the other MilSimCombat members.
